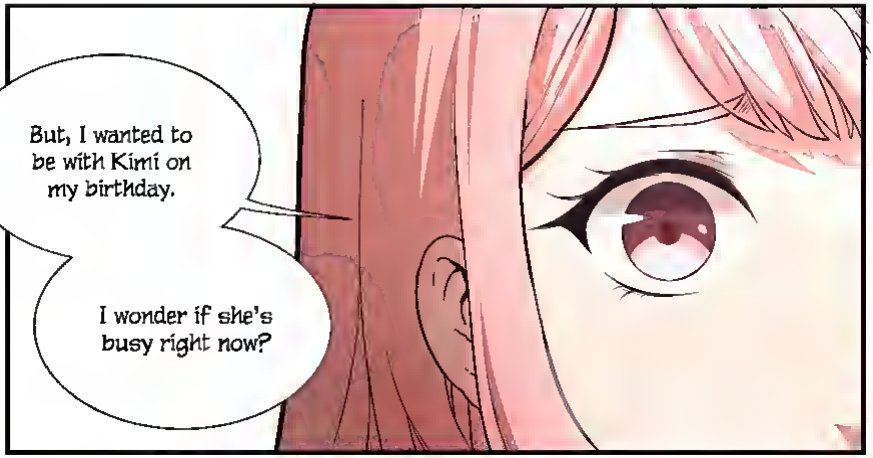
So slow.....
Don't be anxious. After accepting this job, we'll be able to buy lots of pork belly.....
..... or, rather, cake!



But, I wanted to be with Kimi on my birthday.
I wonder if she's busy right now?

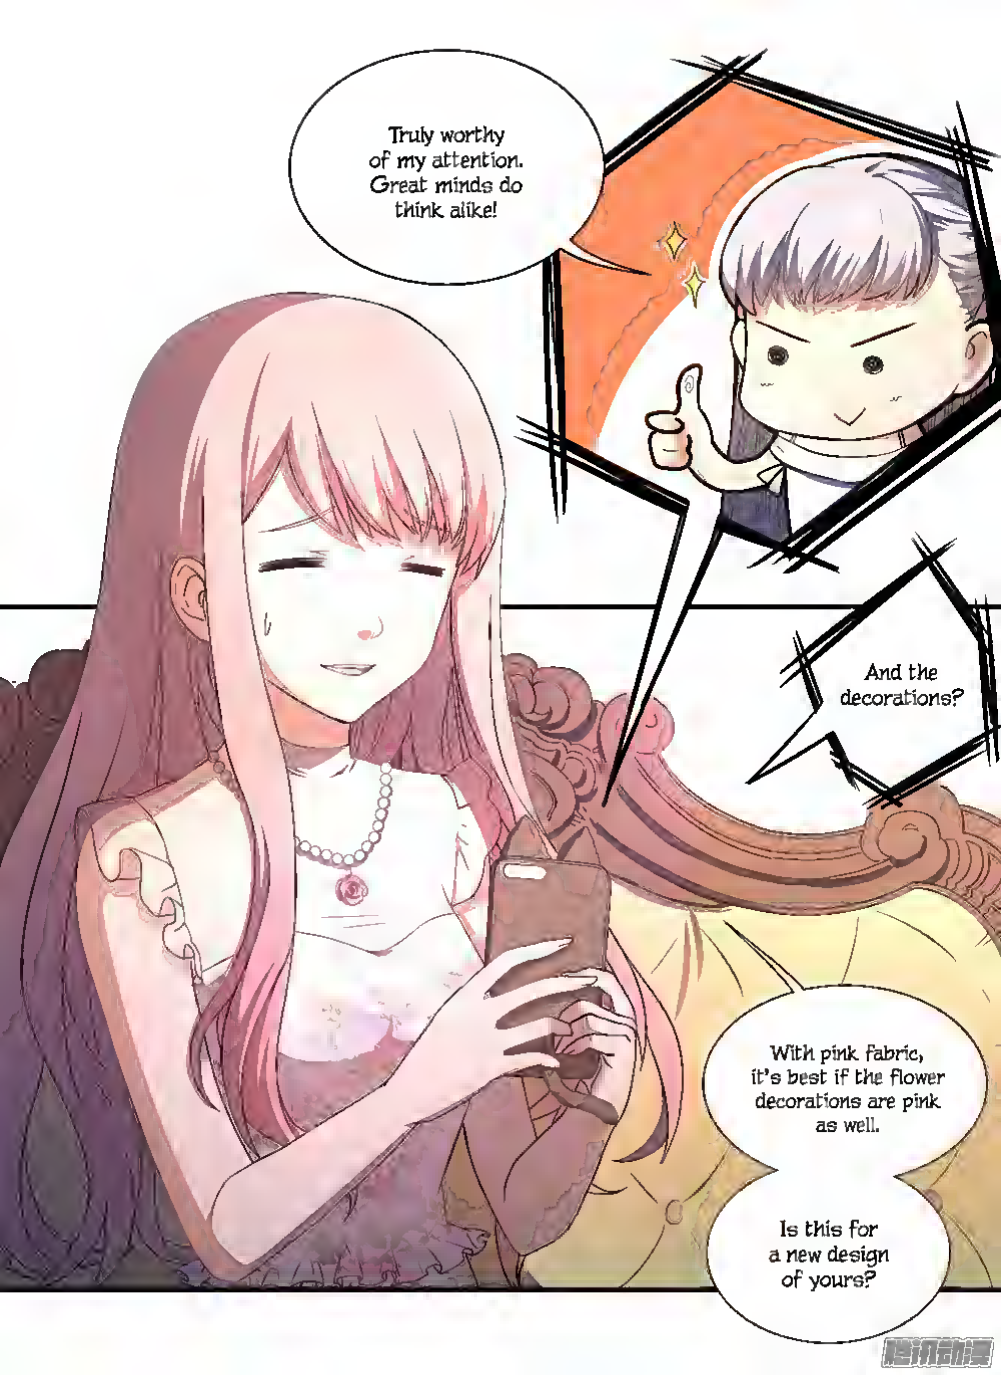
Nikki!
Kimi?

Nikki, is strawberry or chocolate better?
Wu..... strawberry cake, then.
Could it be that Kimi knows today is my birthday and is preparing a cake?

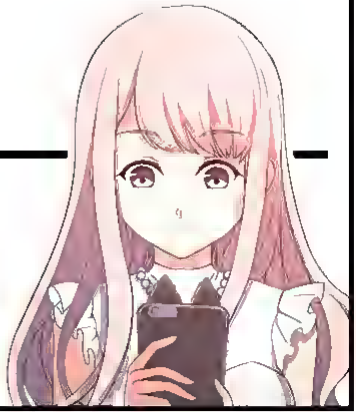
What about these fabrics? Which one is better?
Both are good. The pink is more friendly.
Wu.....



Truly worthy of my attention. Great minds do think alike!
And the decorations?
With pink fabric, it's best if the flower decorations are pink as well.
Is this for a new design of yours?

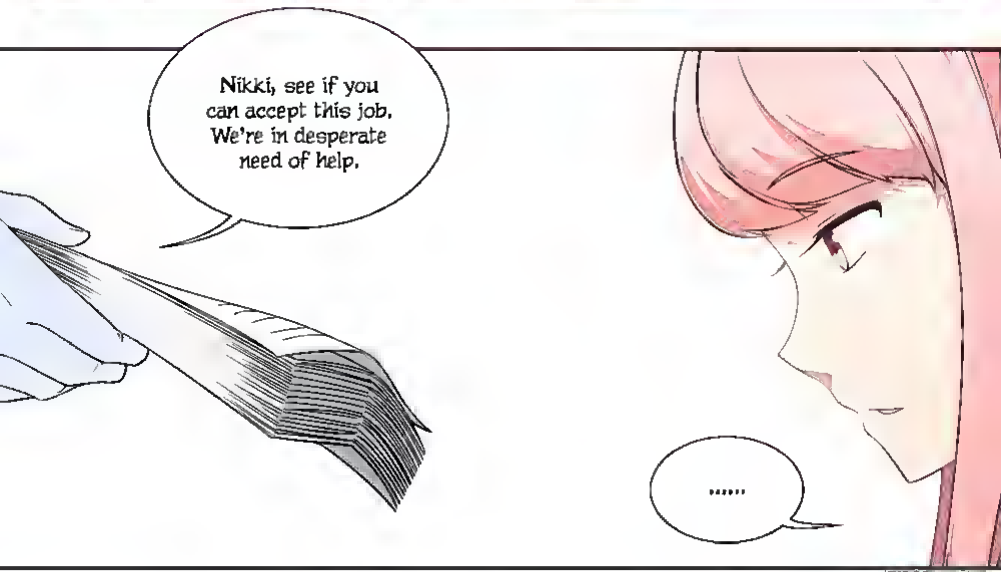
En, I've been working on it for a few days and wanted to hear your opinion.
My assistant is waiting for me, so let's end here for now.

Beep——————————



If Kimi's that busy,
I guess she doesn't have time to spend my birthday with me.

Ah, sorry
I'm late.



Nikki, see if you
can accept this job.
We're in desperate need of help.
.....

En.

Wuah..... so tired.....
It wasn't such a bad choice to spend my birthday immersed in work.
My cell phone ran out of battery and I didn't even notice.

I wonder if Kimi's new design is done?
Nikki!

Why didn't you answer my calls? I thought something had happened to you.
Come with me.
Eh?!

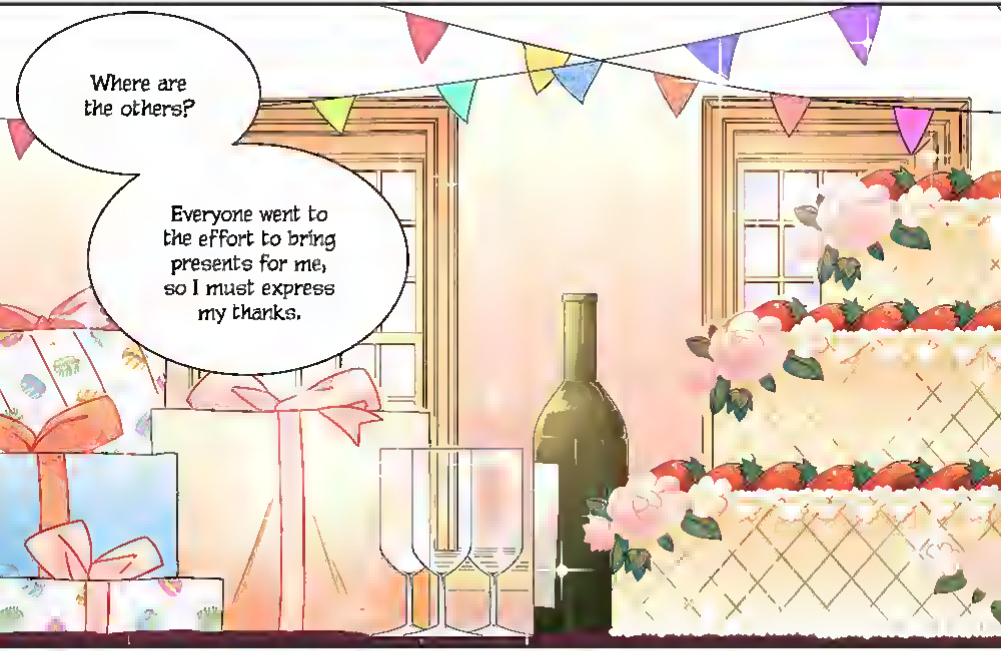
To make such an exquisite dress in such a short time,
it's truly worthy of being your work!
As expected, this colour suits you best.

Thank you,
I love it!

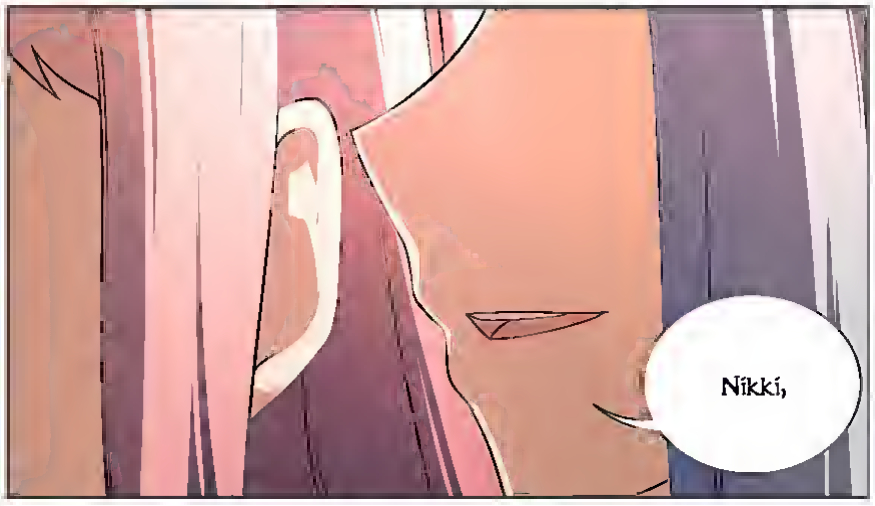
I will make today a day of commemoration in Apple Federation and released limited clothes.
Something as small as this isn't much for a gem's birthday.



Where are the others?
Everyone went to the effort to bring presents for me, so I must express my thanks.

I've had them depart first.

Let's enjoy the last hour of your birthday together.



Happy Birthday!
